The Crisis Center will leverage existing services – including mobile

Project Description	crisis, crisis respite, sobering services, emergency departments, and crisis lines – with the addition of a 24/7 walk-in clinic offering rapid access to any individual with a behavioral health need via a “no wrong door” approach. The Crisis Center will also increase access to stabilization beds for the local crisis system. The Crisis Center will coordinate closely with law enforcement for diversion from arrest of people who do not need to access the criminal justice system. The project team continues to identify resources and funding commitments from key partners who will see overall system savings including law enforcement, emergency departments, and crisis response systems. Output: Lane County will build a 24/7 walk-in crisis center. Outcome: reduced incarceration, jail, and emergency department visits for individuals in behavioral health distress.
